

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Britta Rennkamp
 Date of birth: 25 October 1978
 Citizenship: German

Career

Since 2007 Research fellow, German Development Institute (DIE), Department II: Competitiveness and Social Development, Bonn, Germany
 (Innovation Systems, International Political Economy, Sustainability)
 2007 Consultant GTZ Brazil (Mapping Brazilian German Scientific and Technological Cooperation for Development)
 2006/2007 Trainee, German Technical Cooperation (GTZ/DED), Recife, Brazil
 (Technology transfer and diffusion, Fair Trade, Certification for ecological family agriculture, Evaluation and impact monitoring)
 2004 Research Assistant, Estrategia y Escenarios (EyE), University of Social and Entrepreneurial Sciences (UCES) Buenos Aires, Argentina
 (Scenario Analysis, Free Trade, International Development Organizations)
 2003 Intern, Goethe Institute, Mexico D.F., Mexico (German Mexican Cultural Cooperation)
 2003 Intern, Prochile, Department of Economy, Chilean Consulate, Hamburg (Export Promotion, Research)

Other Professional Activities

Teaching courses on Global Governance in Science, Technology and Innovation (DIE)
 Courses on professional perspectives in development cooperation for returning volunteers (DED)

Education

Since 2008 PhD Candidate at University of Cologne, International Politics and Foreign Policy/ University of Twente, Department Science Technology Policy Studies (Steps)
 2005 Regional Sciences Latin America (Dipl.~ MSc), (Economics, Political Sciences, Latin American History) at University of Cologne, Germany, San Diego State University, USA, New University of Lisbon, Portugal
 1998 Hispanic Studies (Economics, Spanish Philology, History and Political Sciences), University of Barcelona, Spain

