

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Reimund Schwarze (Prof)
Date of birth: 8 April 1959
Citizenship: German

Career

---

Since 2007 Senior Researcher at the Helmholtz-Centre for Environmental Research (UFZ), Head of the Cross-departmental Research Group “Climate Change” at UFZ

2002 - 2007 Senior Researcher at the German Institute for Economic Research (DIW Berlin), Head of the Cross-departmental Research Group “Sustainable Development” of DIW Berlin

Education

---

1990 - 2001 Doctoral Degree in Economics (Dr. rer. oec.) and Professorial qualification (Habilitation) at Technical University of Berlin

1979 - 1989 Studies in Social Sciences and Economics (field of specialization) at University of Goettingen and Free University of Berlin

Awards

---

2005 Honorary Professor for Environmental Economics at the Europe-University Viadrina in Frankfurt (Oder)

1998 - 1999 (academic yr.) Thyssen-Research Fellow „Environmental Law and Political Economy“ at the Institute for International Studies of Stanford University, United States

Sustainable Development cooperation

---

2008 China-Germany Joint Forum on Climate Change and Energy, Beijing

2008 German-Polish Conference on Research for Sustainability, Warsaw

2000 Environmental Expert under the German-Vietnamese Environmental Agreement for the Deutsche Stiftung f. internationale Entwicklung (DIE)

1997 Environmental Expert under the German-Turkish Environmental Agreement for the German Ministry of Environmental Affairs (BMU)